born January 11, 1829 and died at Lee's Summit, Jackson County, Missouri July 30, 1870. She married William Fisher Rogers in Braxton County September 27, 1847. William, a son of John and Malinda (Wilson) Rogers was born in Braxton County VA (WV), January 27, 1827 and died near Walla Wall, WA Nov 11 1889.

On April 18, 1866, the family left Sutton, WV and traveled by flatboat to Charleston, WV. From Charleston, they traveled by steamboat to a place called the Jack Stone farm, near Kansas City, Missouri. They lived there until sometime after Cecelia's death in 1870.

William and his younger children, John, Malinda, Phoebe and Hannah, left Missouri in a covered wagon and arrived at their new home near Medicine Lodge, Kansas October 23, 1873.

William married Sarah A. Bannister in Sun City, Kansas June 26, 1879. Apparently this couple split up, for another marriage application was filed July 22, 1885 for a marriage to Hester A. Hooker. After it the county recorder had written, "This was a failure". William moved to Walla Walla, Washington between 1885 and 1888 and lived with his son, Levi, until his death.
